Debtor(s).)

AMENDED APPLICATION FOR ALLOWANCE OF INTERIM COMPENSATION

Judson C. Hill, attorney for the Debtor, respectfully moves the Court to approve and allow compensation in the amount of $32,269.00 for professional services rendered and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses in the amount of $402.00, all incurred between June 5, 2023 and August 24, 2023. In support of this motion, the movant shows the Court:

1. The Debtor filed Chapter 7 on July 6, 2023 and is subject to the jurisdiction of the Court.
2. Prior to filing, the Debtor retained Judson C. Hill to serve as counsel in the Chapter 7 case.
3. This motion is brought pursuant to (i) 11 U.S.C. Section 330, and (ii) Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

Background

4. The Debtor, Master Lending Group, LLC (“MLG”) is a single member LLC that operated as an investment company in Savannah for many years.

5. The sole member of the LLC, Gregory Hirsch (“Hirsch”), operated the LLC and maintained the LLC’s records.

6. In 2019, Hirsch was diagnosed with a fatal disease.

7. Hirsch’s health deteriorated over time. In the early months of 2023, he reached the stage of his disease where he was no longer able to communicate. During this same time, investors began to approach Hirsch’s spouse, raising concerns about the corpus of funds that had been invested with MLG.

8. Mrs. Hirsch had no personal knowledge concerning MLG’s assets, liabilities or operations and had no business records of MLG in her possession.

9. Hirsch worked in the accounting firm of Hirsch & Tucke for many years. His partner, Jeff Tucker, had no personal knowledge concerning MLG’s assets, liabilities or operations and had no business records of MLG in his possession.

10. Upon retaining personal counsel, Mrs. Hirsch located several boxes of records in Hirsch’s office at Hirsch & Tucker. Her attorney, Timothy Roberts, took immediate steps to secure the records at his office.

11. Mr. Roberts and Mrs. Hirsch contacted the movant during the first week of June, 2023 to discuss a bankruptcy filing for MLG.

12. On June 5, 2023 the movant and his law firm began a thorough investigation of the available records and the documents that were found in Mr. Hirsch’s office. This investigation led to the conclusion that MLG’s liabilities greatly exceed its assets; that MLG had little if any revenue generating investments; and, that MLG was indebted to investors with claims in excess of $40 million dollars. Upon reaching these conclusions, Mrs. Hirsch, via a power of attorney for Hirsch, executed the documents to file this Chapter 7 case.

13. The task of reconstructing MLG into a bankruptable business entity, without organized records or a person able to provide information, was a complex and labor intensive task.

Prayer

14. In sum, the fee contract between MLG and the movant provides for compensation as follows:

Client agrees to pay a $40,000.00 retainer, having paid same to Attorney on 6/21/2023.

Attorney agrees to cap fees for this Chapter 7 case at $40,000.00 and shall seek no further compensation from Client.

Attorney agrees that the filing fee and case costs, including costs incurred for experts, accountants, etc., shall be paid from the $40,000 retainer.

Unearned fees, if any, shall be refunded to Client at such time as the bankruptcy case is closed.

Fees shall be billed against the retainer at the following rates:

Attorney Fees: $300.00 per hour, billed against retainer.

Paralegal Fees: $40.00 per hour, billed against retainer.

14. The movant, Judson C. Hill, submits the Exhibits attached hereto in support of this interim motion to approve fees:

Exhibit A: Prepetition Timesheet Report, including summary of total prepetition compensation, summary of prepetition compensation by individual, and summary of prepetition compensation by category.

Exhibit B: Postpetition Timesheet Report, including summary of total postpetition compensation, summary of postpetition compensation by individual, and summary of postpetition compensation by category.

Exhibit C: Summary of Costs Advanced

Wherefore, the movant prays for an award of fees in the amount of $32,269.00 and reimbursement of costs in the amount of 402.00.

By attaching my signature hereto, I attest and certify to the Court that the information contained in this application is true and accurate.

This 24th day of August, 2023.
