Signature(s)/Signature Requirements (Always complete)

Your request cannot be processed without the correct signature(s), date, and applicable documentation.

- For individual policyowner(s), the person (or persons if there are joint owners) that owns the policy must sign.
- For corporations, an authorized officer must sign. Be sure to include the title of the officer and the company name.
 - If president – no additional requirements
 - If vice president – for policies over $1,000,000, provide a Corporate Secretary’s statement reflecting the vice president’s authority to sign
 - If any other officer – provide a corporate resolution
- For limited liability companies (LLC), a copy of the document that identifies who is authorized to act on behalf of the LLC (e.g. operating agreement) must be submitted. The individual(s) authorized to act should sign and include his/her title and the company name.
- For partnerships (LP, LLP, and LLLP), the form should be signed by at least two general partners, followed by the title “general partner” after each signature. If the company only has one general partner, then the sole general partner should sign followed by the title “sole general partner”. Also, include the company name.
- For sole proprietorships, submit the signature of the owner, followed by “doing business as (company name), a sole proprietorship.”
- For trusts, the trustee(s) must sign and include the title “trustee” after their signature. The name of the trust must also be indicated in the space provided for Business/Trust name. All trustees must sign unless the trust itself or state law provides otherwise.
- A holder of a power of attorney for the policyowner must sign the form and include the title “attorney-in-fact for (owner’s name).” In addition, a copy of the power of attorney papers must be submitted along with the request.
- For guardian (conservator) of the estate - sign as “guardian of the estate of (name of ward)”. A copy of the guardianship papers must also be submitted. Depending on the rights granted by the guardianship papers or the state, a court order authorizing the change may also be required.
- For a policy containing a limitation of rights, the person or entity in whose favor the rights have been limited must also sign.

If an ownership change has been requested, new owner must complete the Tax Certification for Change of Ownership section. Transferring ownership may have tax consequences. Because each situation is unique, neither we nor our representatives can provide tax advice. We suggest that you consult with your attorney or other tax advisor regarding any tax implications which may arise from this request.

By signing this form, I:

- certify that I am authorized to sign this form,
- certify that the change(s) being requested are not subject to, or in conflict with, any prior agreement, legal proceeding, or court/administrative order, which restrict, limit, or otherwise prohibit such change(s), including, but not limited to divorce or bankruptcy proceedings,
- authorize all request(s) made on this form, both preprinted and handwritten, which are subject to the terms and conditions of the policy,
- request a waiver of any policy provision that requires me to send Prudential the policy for endorsement of the change(s),
- certify that the policy(ies) is/are in my possession and that no other person has any claim or interest in it/them, except for a collateral assignee under any assignment now on record with Prudential,
- certify that if the owner is a corporation or partnership, that it is not under receivership, trusteeship, or conservatorship, and/or has not been dissolved, and if a partnership, that no notice of disassociation has been filed by any partner, and
- understand that any endorsement that Prudential may issue will conform to its rules and practices.
